

The 42nd
HAMPTON JAZZ FESTIVAL

June 26-28, 2009

Robin Thicke

In 1968, the Hampton Jazz Festival was but a one time celebration of the centennial of Hampton University. Forty two memorable years later, this festival has become the pinnacle of entertainment offered in beautiful Hampton, Virginia. Originally held at Armstrong Field on the campus of Hampton University, the Hampton Jazz Festival was moved to Hampton Coliseum in 1970 where it has been held sequentially every June since.

This year's lineup was just as star packed as the years before, boasting such acts as Ledisi, The O'Jays, Chuck Brown, Robin Thicke and Patti Labelle. The reputation of the Hampton Jazz Festival, even in its 42nd year, has lived up to its legendary name.

Chuck Brown

Friday June 26, 2009

Jazz Attack featuring Jonathan Butler (center),
Richard Elliot (left) and Rick Braun (right)

George Benson

Ledisi

Kenny "Babyface" Edmonds

Saturday June 27, 2009

Michael McDonald

Forte Jazz Band

Fantasia Barrino

The O'Jays

Sunday June 28, 2009

Robin Thicke

Keiko Matsui

Patti LaBelle

Chuck Brown

The Fans

Photo Credit:
Larry Dixon Jr.

Page Designer:
Mark Tsao